PROJECTS

- Turbo Engage - A small controller built off an Arduino board with reprogrammable buttons & the ability to have a "turbo" functionality, a way to rapidly press a singular button.
- Untitled Virtual Reality final project - A class final project made in Unity w/ Meta Quest 2 in mind; an endeavor featuring learning C#, the engine itself, and ripping assets from compiled Unity projects - most ripped from one of my favorite games of all time AI: THE SOMNIUM FILES, a game that also runs off the Unity engine.
- Several miscellaneous HTML websites
